This is voiced today by the Petit Journal which also states it appears Franco will be completely indemnified. The belief prevails, the Journal says, that Premier Clemenceau's view point regarding reparations from Germany and indemnities for pensions for cripples and war widows will be upheld.

(By Associated Press)

Lawrence, Mass., April 7.—Following the riotous street battle in which pistol shots were exchanged and the police, marked the opening of the tenth week of the textile strike here today. The outbreak occurred in the vicinity of the Everett Mills shortly before 7 o'clock, a few hours after the city had been stirred by the explosion of a bomb in a tenement house in the same neighborhood. No one was wounded by the shooting. Several platers and a number of police officers were injured by sticks, stones and clubs.

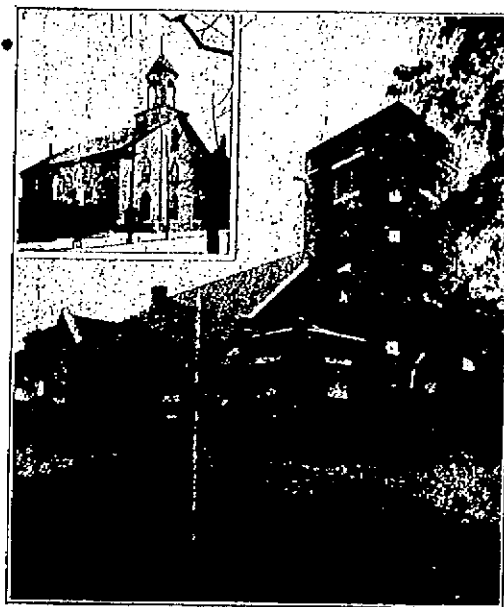

The rioting started when a few strike sympathizers began throwing stones at mill windows and then shifting their attack to policemen who sought to quiet them. The crowd grew rapidly and the little squad of officers called for reserves. City Marshal O'Brien responded with a large force and read the riot act.

Following their club ineffective the police drew revolvers and their shots were answered by others from the crowd. Men and women appeared at windows with missiles and the police were obliged to send shots in their direction to drive them from their points of vantage. The rioting occurred at Common and Newbury street where there are many tenements. Windows in a number of houses were broken and there was much damage at the Everett Mills.

The bomb explosion occurred before daylight in a house at 41 Newbury street. The rear door and porch were destroyed and the cellar walls of the house torn open by the explosion. Although a score of persons were in the house attending a wake for Daniel Garvey no one was injured. Several

BURNED CHURCH MORTGAGE NOTE

The Present Church, Built 1912-1913—Insert, The State Street Church Built in 1827.

First Methodist Episcopal Church Cleared Off Debt---Bishop Hamilton Present

There was a very impressive service Mrs. George E. Chaffee rendered the on Sunday forenoon at the First Methodist Episcopal church when the mortgage on the new church was officially burned and the church declared free of debt.

There was a large congregation present at the services and the occasion was honored by the presence of Bishop John W. Hamilton D. D. L. L. D. of Washington who delivered a most appropriate sermon for the occasion.

District Superintendent T. Ross Hicks presided and spoke of what the notable occasion meant to the Methodist Society. The congregation joined in singing the hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," and prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. Rollin S. Tuttle.

Rev. Mr. Hicks read the Scripture lesson from 1 Corinthians, 13th chapter, that wonderful piece of truth by Paul the Apostle in which he tells that gifts are nothing without charity. The lesson was read from the historic Bible presented to the church in 1828.

The acting pastor, Rev. Elmer F. Nowell, has been in charge of the church for the past three months, since the pastor, Rev. Rollin S. Tuttle, was called into the work of the Centenary in the Pittsburg area. Rev. Mr. Hicks spoke in praise of the efficient

CANNOT FURNISH HUNS ALL FOOD SPECIFIED

180,000 Tons All Hoover Is Able to Send in April.

Paris, April 5.—The food difficulties in Germany were by no means solved by the signing of the food agreement.
Tonnage is unavailable to move the required supplies, and the available grain stocks are so short that it probably will be impossible to furnish the full amount specified in the agreement for some time.

Herbert Hoover, director-general of the Inter-Allied relief organization, estimates that he can furnish Germany 180,000 tons of grain during the month of April.

However, if the German estimates that the German grain and potato stocks will be exhausted before June are correct, Mr. Hoover says it is questionable whether food enough can be supplied to the Germany over until the next harvest, particularly as German ships, in which the bulk of the food must be transported, cannot land cargoes in Germany inside of six weeks.

TO PLANT TREES FOR WAR HEROES

Washington, D. C., April 6.—It seems likely there will be two Memorial days this year instead of one.

The country appears to be preparing to observe Arbor Day for paying tribute to the soldier dead abroad in the spirit that it will lay flowers in May on the graves of those that rest at home.

This intention is indicated by the number of inquiries arriving at the Department of Agriculture as to the best memorial tree to plant in this or that section of the country. The queries are not confined to individuals, among whom there are many fathers and mothers, but are from chambers of commerce, boards of trade, park commissions, motor clubs and Mayors of cities who oftentimes add that memorials and arches will be erected to those who fell on foreign soil. But the greater number of inquiries are from villages whose sole token to their dead will be a tree planted in their memory.

Don't Forsake the Gardens.

At a gardening conference held in Boston recently A. B. Jenks of the Middlesex County Farm Bureau deplored the demobilization of food production committees and said that every community should have an organization to assist gardeners as has been done for the last two years under the necessity of producing every pound of food stuffs that could be made to grow. In spite of the fact that the war is over Mr. Jenks believes the effort should be kept up for one more season, at least, for Europe is still largely dependent upon this country for food, and will be until the home crops are harvested.

While all know that splendid results were accomplished by the war gardeners in 1917 and 1918, it is probable that few are aware of the magnitude of the accomplishments. Mr. Jenks said he had learned by thorough investigation that in Massachusetts alone there were 284,000 war gardens comprising 24,000 acres, and that the value of the crops from these gardens aggregated $6,000,000. This seems like a strong statement, but it is made by a reliable man and is based on a knowledge of the facts, and must consequently be accepted as trustworthy.

As there is no reason for thinking that Massachusetts did better than other states, in proportion to population, these figures are impressive as showing what was accomplished under the stimulus of the war gardening movement.

It is hardly to be expected that the work will be so general and enthusiastic this year as it has been for the past two seasons. The war is over and most people will feel at liberty to consult their own pleasure and convenience with regard to further gardening operations. Undoubtedly many will drop out of the lists, but it is also probable that many who have learned the possibilities that gardening presents will continue. They have learned that there is health, pleasure and profit in the work and will not be dissuaded from further efforts by the fact that the war has come to an end.

Local organizations for the encouragement of this work there may well be, but these should now be voluntary. Cities and towns should no longer be asked to provide financial backing, as they have in the past. The gardeners have had two years of profitable experience, and those desiring to go ahead should now be in a position to do so without assistance from the public treasuries.

The season for operations is close at hand and it is none too early for the gardening brigade to be preparing for the campaign. The experimental stage has been passed. The recruits of two years ago may now be regarded as veterans, and may success attend the efforts of all who decide to "stay with the soil" for another season.

Word comes from Camp Devens that relatives of the new arrivals from France will not be permitted to see them until after the soldiers have been "dehoused." There should be cheerful agreement with this regulation, notwithstanding the anxiety that naturally exists to extend the glad hand to the homecoming heroes.

A Pennsylvania man wants the growing of tobacco discontinued because it is a "weed" that "debauches youth, stunts and enfeebles manhood and brings about an early old age." But there are some old fellows around in a condition to give the lie to the latter part of this contention, at least.

The labor unions of the city are to be commended for their interest in the hospital and its needed improvements. Such an institution is worth much to workingmen and their families, as well as to all classes of the community, and all should stand ready to further its interests in every possible way.

Michigan is taking prohibition very seriously. In that state the mere possession of liquor is a felony punishable by a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment for from six months to two years. Of course druggists are excepted.

American polish producers have combined for the alleged purpose of keeping the United States independent of Germany in this industry. But is that the sole reason for the combination?

South Boston is to get one of Henry Ford's new automobile plants, which will give employment to 150,000 men. What a godsend such an establishment would be to some smaller town.

Only a little while ago the government couldn't get flyin machines fast enough, and now it has a lot on hand to sell. And the market promises anything but good profits on the stock.

The federal tax on luxuries will go into effect May 1. What a happy May Day it will be for people who are in the habit of having the best.

MORTGAGE NOTE BURNED

work Rev. Mr. Newell had done in the church in that time.

Rev. Mr. Tuttle, who had worked untiringly to lessen the church debt, who returned for this occasion, was called upon and after extending a hearty greeting to the congregation, told of the privilege it was to be present at the burning of the mortgage note and of the faithful co-operation of the parish that made it possible to raise the amount and cancel the church debt.

Bishop John W. Hamilton, D. D., L. L. D., a special guest at the service, delivered an eloquent sermon which was listened to with the closest attention by the congregation. The Bishop was present when the church was dedicated.

Bishop Hamilton chose the text of his sermon from Isaiah XLII:16: "And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known. I will make darkness light before them and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them and not forsake them."

The Bishop opened his sermon by saying it was a significant vision which had caused nations as well as individuals to stumble and fall; that blind leaders of the blind have led both to fall in the ditch. A mistake is the result of imperfect vision, but a crime is the result of wilful illusion. We have instances of both delusions in the blundering nations drawn into the world war which has horrified all civilized peoples and caused 25 millions of casualties.

Bishop Hamilton said there is only one great thought in the entire world today; that while all here are at worship our country is represented with all other countries in an endeavor to end man killing man.

First the Bishop spoke of the mental and spiritual blindness of the Allies and here he said, we find our own national shortsightedness. We have felt no responsibility in caring for the backward nations of the earth. It was right, he said, that the United States should be in the war and until General Pershing arrived at Lafayette's tomb it was only a game of empire that Europe was playing—a blind man's bluff.

The Bishop spoke secondly of the mental and spiritual blindness of the central powers saying that the world had stood amidst the danger in the midst and the murder in the soul of the German people, and he then asked what shall be planned for the prevention of war and to secure reparation and, in the event of disagreement in war, must peace always be sought by battle? He said in 30 or 40 years we have failed to note how Germany was departing from the straight path and he spoke of the spiritual blindness which comes to us and that although sorrow has certainly taken hold of the inhabitants of the whole earth it is by the sadness of the soul that the heart is made better; God rides on the storm and in the end will win His way.

The Bishop spoke of some things that have been gained from the war: first, the brotherhood of nations; our millions of boys overseas have bridged all oceans with a holy fellowship and common citizenship; woman, he said, is no longer the lesser man, and she has worked for the cause and suffered too in this war. We are no more strangers and foreigners but fellow citizens of the world and of the household of God.

Secondly he spoke of the unity of America and said that no lesson had come to us of greater profit than that which united our own people; that all were one in our armies—every man was a brother no matter what his nationality.

The third point referred to by the Bishop was brotherly sympathy; that when money was needed our pockets were turned inside out and we drew all nations to us and then he told of the spirit of reformation and the noble example set by our army and navy, no better or cleaner set of men being sent into Europe and we will still strive to be a pattern of temperate moderation and clean living to other peoples.

In closing the Bishop spoke of the responsibilities of making peace and said that no service was more exacting than after the war to make our enemies our friends. It is impossible to put God out of our governments, he said, and that all should pray for God's help for support; there is only one righteousness and we must all come to it; yet we are so sure we are all right that we are not willing to trust on. There can be no salvation for Germany only by the destruction of that which has fed her inordinate self-glory, with its train of pride, envy, hatred and contempt and that military machine in which she trusted must be smashed.

Bishop Hamilton has been, for many years, one of the great leaders of the church and well known as a preacher of eloquence and commanding influence.

For many years he was pastor of the leading Methodist churches of Boston and the builder of the Great People's Temple. He was for some time the general secretary of the Freedman's Aid Society, from which position he was called to the office of Bishop. His residence was for many years on the Pacific coast and then he was transferred to the Boston area. In 1910 he was retired from active service because of the age limit but was immediately elected Chancellor of the American University of Washington, D. C.

Greatly beloved, highly honored by the church, he still continues active work seemingly with all the vivacity of youth. Portsmouth was exceedingly fortunate in having him present on the day of the mortgage burning note.

As the mortgage note was about to be burned the members of the official board of the parish gathered in front of the pulpit platform. On the platform were Bishop Hamilton, District Superintendent T. Ross Hicks, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Tuttle, and acting pastor, Rev. Mr. Newell. George H. Chadwick, president of the board of trustees, James H. Smith, Frank W. Knight, trustees of the church, and acting treasurer and collector of the collecting committee; also Mrs. Knight who had so ably helped in this work.

Mr. Knight addressed the gathering in the following words:

"In a way it gives me great pleasure to have a part in this service and I wish first to make a report as there may be some here who do not know how much our church cost. The building cost $25,363.49; the lot $3000, making a total of $28,363.49. As you all can see we made no mistake in building when we did. The corner stone of this church was laid on September 9, 1912. The contents were deposited by Rev. Taylor L. Galtier, who was then pastor of the church. The address was given by Rev. L. J. Hickey, D. D., of Boston University. On Sunday, April 23, 1913, the church was dedicated. Rev. L. L. Galtier, who was in charge of the services, had the able assistance of Bishop Hamilton, who, as the result of a plea for the reduction of the debt raised $1000 in pledges. During this time which has elapsed, we have labored incessantly, always with this day in view. And now we wish to thank all who have in any way helped us—our sister church from Kittery, who so nobly responded to our appeal on that eventful Sunday,—our congregational friends, who have always patronized us so generously at our entertainments and each individual present and absent. Mr. Knight then read the note, after which a pleasant surprise occurred and Mr. Chadwick was presented with the silver plate in which the note was to be burned, the gift being from the official board of the church in recognition of Mr. Chadwick's liberality in contributing to wipe out the debt.

Mr. Knight made the presentation in the following words: "Brother Chadwick:—We are about to burn this note after which it is our wish that you accept this plate as a souvenir of the occasion and expression of our appreciation of your great generosity and helpfulness in cancelling this debt."

The gift was accepted by Mr. Chadwick with much appreciation and will be treasured as a reminder of a happy day in the history of the church.

The plate was engraved as follows: "Presented to George H. Chadwick by the official board of the First Methodist Church, Portsmouth, N. H., at the burning of the mortgage April 6, 1919."

The note was placed in the plate which was held by Mr. Chadwick and Bishop Hamilton and Rev. Mr. Tuttle touched the matches to the paper which was soon reduced to ashes. During this ceremony the congregation sang the Doxology. At the close of the notable service the entire congregation passed in line to greet Bishop Hamilton, District Superintendent Hicks, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Tuttle, and acting pastor, Rev. Mr. Newell. It was a happy day for the Methodist parish and that society deserves great praise that the united efforts of all have cleared the church of debt.

In the evening Bishop Hamilton preached an able sermon and a large congregation was present.

The price of coal is 75 per cent determined by wages. The wage agreement at the mines continues until April 1, 1920. The Fuel Administration reports that 35 per cent of the mines cannot make any money at the present mine prices. In view of this, how can coal be cheaper this year?

CHARGED WITH HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Two Italians giving the names of Tony M. Monggano and Josh Cremona were arrested on Sunday evening and they are charged with highway robbery. The story told the police is that the two Italians, one who has been in service, grabbed a watch from Elmer Brown on Jefferson street shortly before seven o'clock Sunday evening, and with such force that they broke the chain.

The police were notified, and Officers Murphy and D. Kelley arrested them soon after in the rear of the Walker's Coal Wharf, where they were hiding. They had thrown the watch away, but it was picked up by a man and given the officers.

Saturday night the police arrested Ignazio Perforio an Italian, Court street charged with selling. He has been convicted once before and this is a second offense and much more serious.

Police officers who investigated the affair expressed the belief that the bomb was intended for an adjoining house occupied by mill workers.

Twenty-seven arrests were made. One man arrested had $1300, and a $100 liberty bond in his person.

Women and children were again on the picketing lines during the morning. In the mill district women with rocks in their hands prevented children from going to school.

With the opening of the schools today, there will be some changes made by the new educational bill which became a law upon receiving the signature of the Governor. Under the old law the Whipple school was a junior high school and children in that school who were over fourteen years of age could leave school and get a high certificate and go to work.

This is changed by the new law which specifically states that every scholar must complete the eighth grade, or be sixteen years of age, before they will be allowed to leave school and go to work. From now on every child must complete the eighth grade if under sixteen years of age. The Superintendent of Schools is giving some authority to discharge scholars if there is sufficient reason to convince him that the welfare of the child is such that they would be better out of school than in.

Under the new law all foreigners under 21 years of age unable to read or write the English language, will be compelled to attend a night school, and they will have to have certificates to secure employment.

All superintendents of schools are paid by the state and all of the small town schools are supervised, and also state aid to enable them to keep school the required 36 weeks a year. The biggest feature is that fact that every school must be taught English, and French and other schools must indicate that language secondary to the English language. Under the new law the school board retains supervision of the child labor law and the Mothers Aid.

PRISONERS TO GIVE ANOTHER SHOW HERE

The naval prisoners from the navy prison are to give their second show in this city on April 25th and 26th. It is to conclude with comedy scenes from Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," with elaborate dances and choruses.

The two performances will be for the benefit of the fund stolen from the prison safe by Chief Yeoman Brownlee.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By adding at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

branch in Aid of French Wounded are requested to furnish all knitted articles if possible by Friday and leave with Mrs. W. H. Tobey as this is the last day before a shipment will be made to France.

DOVER

Dover, April 7.—Many Dover, Rochester and Somersworth citizens accepted the invitation of the leading officials of the Dover, Somersworth & Rochester Street railway to meet with them in the council chamber in the city building to discuss matters in relation to the betterment of the electric car service between these cities. State Senator Alvin T. Rensselaer had been instrumental in bringing about the conference, presided. President Holden of the Dover, Somersworth and Rochester Street railway, spoke at length and set forth a few of the many difficulties which confronted the electric road at the present time.

A lengthy and heated discussion followed in which many notions of the road took part. Among these who spoke were Mayor Brown of Somersworth, Samuel Meserve, Wright Sykes and Everett J. Galloway, all of Dover, Dr. H. Z. Reed of Berwick, Col. Frank Kendall and Mayor Young of Rochester. After many of these above mentioned had spoken at length and in a very animated manner, Mr. Holden called upon Mr. Hunt, the general manager of the electric railway, to address the gathering.

After this gentleman had spoken and had attempted to show some of the difficulties under which the road was operating, he was subjected to an exhaustive cross-examination by City Solicitor Galloway which was keenly enjoyed by those present. Although it had been announced that members of the public service commission would be present, none of the three members of the board were in attendance.

Lieut. Carl E. Rollins of the 33 squadron, aviation section after an absence from home for a period of 17 months arrived in Dover Sunday morning on leave of absence to visit his parents, Col. and Mrs. Frank E. Rollins. He has recently returned from overseas and is stationed at a hospital at Port Henry, Maryland, recovering from an injury.

In the municipal court Saturday morning Judge William E. Nason presiding, Alta Rieley of Somersworth pleaded guilty to the commission of an assault upon Frank Langley of the Dover, Somersworth and Rochester Street railway. The court ordered him to pay a fine of $5 and costs, total $11.74, which respondent paid. Langley and Rieley had a controversy on one of the cars of the railway Friday evening and when the car reached the Y both jumped from the car and continued the argument. Rieley during the argument hit Langley once.

The transport America, which arrived at Commonwealth pier, Boston, Saturday brought to their native land 19 Stratford county boys. Twenty-one men from this county came on the transports, eight belonging to Dover, Somersworth and Rochester had five each and Farmington, New Durham and Rollinsford one each.

The operators of the jitney service between this city and Somersworth have received a communication from the Public Service Commission stating that they must not continue to operate the jitneys as they have been doing since the 1st of March 1919.

Mrs. Charles C. Crowley received a telegram from her husband, who has been going overseas duty in the Quartermaster's department of the A. N. P., announcing his arrival in this country Saturday. He is now stationed at Camp Jackson, So. Carolina.

Mayor Fred C. Smalley was among the welcoming party which went down Boston Harbor Friday to greet the homecoming New Hampshire boys on the Mt. Vernon.

KITCHEN CABINET

There's More Sunshine in Life With a Hoosier to Save Work.

Isn't it a fact that kitchen slavery "gets on your nerves" quite often? Haven't you envied the seeming ease with which men accomplish their daily tasks? Why then, do you not follow the example of successful men and surround yourself with time and labor saving methods.

Don't be a slave to pots and pans—the war has taught thousands of women that kitchen slavery is unnecessary as well as harmful. It has taught them to save time and energy. It has taught them efficiency in their home affairs.

Kitchen apologies are unknown in over a million homes for Hoosier housewives take pride in welcoming guests to their workshops. And Hoosier housewives find more time for social hours, for they save time in preparing and clearing up after meals.

This is Hoosier week—all over the country they are being talked of and read about. We all realize their importance and want to tell you of the many practical, time-saving features.

PORTSMOUTH HIT HARD FOR SHARE OF STATE TAX

Nearly Three Times as Much as the Previous Year.

With the increased state tax and the additional dollar added to the poll tax the people of Portsmouth will have reason to gaze on and think over the next document from the collector's office. To begin with the city will be required to pay nearly three times as much for its share of the state tax as that of last year which was something a little over $23,000. The call for our share this year shows we must pay over to the treasurer the sum of $65,010.00. This is going some for a jump in one year. Added to this we must pay for increased salary of the police, the increased poll tax, etc.

The next tax bill will cause the real estate man to cogitate on the matter of continuing to own property or handing up the flag of the auctioneer.

CHARMS HER HEARERS

Miss Rose Marie Smith Gives Monologues With Artistic Skill.

Miss Rose Marie Smith charmed her hearers at Association Hall in the Y. M. C. A. building Saturday evening when she appeared in the comedy "Kilnwood." It was regretted that the bad weather caused the audience to be smaller than was expected but those who were present derived much enjoyment from the entertainment.

Miss Smith has rare talent in presenting monologues, while her personality is charming and she holds her audiences to the very end.

The comedy was filled with amusing situations. It was in five parts, Miss Smith changing her costume for each. In the last part she wore a dignity evening gown which enhanced her natural beauty. At the conclusion of the comedy she was enthusiastically applauded and she then gave "The Parting of David."

Mrs. Florence Marshall Walker presided at the piano and her fine piano selections added much to the entertainment.

Miss Smith appeared at the men's reading room at the navy yard Sunday evening, presenting a subscription program which delighted the enlisted men.

She left this morning for Camp Devens, where she will entertain the boys of the 26th Division this week.

Miss Smith, who appears under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. war work council, left a most favorable impression in this city and vicinity and her work gave evidence of much talent. It is hoped she will appear there again in the future.

WORKMEN KICK ON DAYLIGHT SAVING SCHEME

Shipyard workers, who commute from Newburyport, are dissatisfied with the daylight saving scheme.

They claim that groping around in the dark to shut off an incident alarm clock, eating dinner in the dark and hurrying to the station in the rainy dawn is not conducive to good temper.

Lord comes the lament from the mechanics that they were just beginning to enjoy life when the new order of time plunged them again into gloom. No mention is made of the long afternoon that is still there when the train pulls back to their home town and most of the boys wouldn't change back for anything.

In about two weeks the sun will be shining when the workmen's train starts at 6:12 p. m. and all will be happy again.

POLICE COURT

A lengthy session of the municipal court took up nearly all the forenoon today when the court heard the story of booze runners, booze fighters and riot fighters and drunks.

The first case was that of Tony Mangano and Joseph Clement, who were gathered in the patrol wagon on Water street on Sunday. They were both charged with assault. The principal witness was Elmer Brown of Washington Street. Brown claimed several young men were throwing rocks at his back and when he protested they told him where he could go. A crowd gathered and Tony and Joe took a crack at each other.

Somebody sent a call for the police and the whole bunch of rock throwers retreated to water street with the enemy in close pursuit. The police picked out the scoundrels and whisked them away to the Chapel street camp.

Today the whole affair concluded with a fine of $18.05 for Tony and his sparring partner.

Ignazio Parante, who runs a lodging house on Cutts street, appeared for the second time on a charge of keeping liquor for sale and pleaded guilty. The place was raided on Saturday and a quantity of whiskey and Jamaica ginger found. He was released on the payment of a fine of $100 and costs of $12.15.

Charles Foster and John Greenburg, both consumers of juke, got a free ticket, being their first appearance in the court.

Thomas Ross, for drunkenness, paid $11.82.

In the case of Benjamin Blake, charged with keeping for sale, the court ordered the defendant released, owing to the lack of evidence.

THIEVES ROB TWO HOUSES AT KITTERY

Dog Fails to Frighten Crooks at Currier Home.

Burglars not of the amateur class, made quite a haul in Kittery on Saturday night in two places.

The first call was at the residence of K. Foss Hayes where they carried away jewelry valued over $200. The break was discovered about 11:30 when the occupants of the house returned from Portsmouth.

The residence of Emory Currier at the Lower Foreside was the second place to receive the attention of the crooks who took all the silverware and other articles estimated to be worth $250.

Entrance was gained the same way in the houses by the use of a jimmy on rear windows. The fact that the inmates of the Currier residence were not aroused by any noise of the burglars and a dog in the house at the time failed to give them any cause of fright, showed that it was the work of professionals. Deputy Sheriff James Boardman worked on the case a good part of the night but could get no trace of the crooks who most likely were traveling in an automobile.
